David & Mary met at ISU. They joined The Navigators in 1968. After serving two years with Navigators in Texas, David became National Director for Singapore, serving there until 1981. In 1973 the Methodist Church in Singapore asked him to help them in training their people in evangelism and discipleship. This is where Equipping the Saints (ETS) was born. Today ETS materials are in 79+ countries and are printed in 39 languages. David is the CEO of ETS, which exists to help churches and mission organizations in the area of discipleship. He carries a heavy administrative load, writes discipleship materials, and discipled people locally. He travels internationally doing pastors' training seminars.
