From 1973 to 1986 Larry and Cheryl worked with The Navigators collegiate ministries in Iowa and Illinois (at ISU then SIU). In 1986 they began overseas ministry in East Asia and Taiwan, living for five years in each of three major cities. They returned to Iowa City in 2003 where they focused on reaching international students. Their goal was to develop a reproducing disciple-making ministry among the ethnic Chinese on U of Iowa campus.

Their ministry strategy included networking among Chinese students, evangelizing, discipling, mentoring and holding large and small group events.

In more recent years, Larry was diagnosed with Parkinson's Disease, which led them to retire in June 2017. The McCoskeys have 3 daughters.
