

Egla Tingson

Christian Aid Mission - ASCO

Egla has served in the Philippines for many decades. Her husband, Greg, started preaching when WWII broke out and they began ministering together in 1948. He was known throughout the Philippines and region as a powerful evangelist, and worked with the Billy Graham Association at times. He began Asian Christian Outreach (ASCO) in the '70s. Their mission is to evangelize, equip and send out servant leaders to share the Good News. Greg passed away in 2010.

Egla remains involved with the children's ministry which has 7 preschool and feeding programs in the ASCO outreaches.
